

Southern Queensland Rural Health Tuke Annex

Toowoomba, Queensland
Completed 2019

Located on the Baillie Henderson Hospital campus, this project encompasses the conversion of a heritage listed ward building into a training facility for rural students.

The conversion includes meeting and training rooms, video-conferencing and tele-health rooms, as well as office facilities.

